DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION	ASAP

POSITION DESCRIPTION/DETAILS:

Weekend Meteorologist/Reporter

From snow to sun, and hail to tornadoes - we get it all in Southern Minnesota and Northern Iowa - and that makes this position a challenge for any meteorologist. Our severe weather coverage is award-winning - can you help us carry the tradition forward?

We are a dominant CBS affiliate that also has a FOX affiliation on its digital subchannel. We put an emphasis on severe weather coverage, and we need a full-time meteorologist/weather anchor who can forecast the weather for our 5 weekend newscasts as well report news, shoot live shots and provide web content during the week.

This position also serves as the main fill-in for our evening and morning weather shifts.

A Meteorology degree not required, but is helpful. We will train you to run our state-of-the art weather graphics system from WSI.

This is an entry-level position with a Bachelor's degree required. This position may close at anytime, so apply today!
